

FLAG CAPTURED DURING CIVIL WAR RETURNED TO YANKEE COLOR BEARER

W. C. Montgomery of Company D, 76th Ohio, receiving tattered emblem, more than 50 years old, from Mrs. Townes R. Legh, matron of honor at the Jacksonville (Fla.) Confederate Veterans' reunion. At her left is Colonel Kibler, one of the few remaining "boys in gray."

YE MODEST EDITOR

While dodging a pretty woman who acted as if she intended to kiss him Editor Lindstrom fell over a barrel of salt on the depot platform at Langdon, and then Lindstrom discovered that she had her eye on another fellow all the time.—Bismarck (N. D.) Tribune.

EVER THUS

Some one has dug up the following from the Chicago Inter Ocean at Dec. 31, 1862:

George Pullman, of the firm of Pullman and Moore, house raisers, is experimenting with what he calls 'a palace sleeping-car.' The 'wise ones' predict that it will be a failure."
